Solid Start or Investment Opportunity! Step into this well-built home, full of timeless character and practical features throughout. You'll appreciate the spacious 22x24 garage and the extra parking space at the back — perfect for an RV or boat. The layout offers a bright living area, a functional kitchen, and good-sized bedrooms. There was a new furnace installed last winter, the hot water tank was replaced approximately 3 years ago, and shingles were replaced in the last 10 years. Whether you're buying your first home, downsizing, or looking for an investment, this property provides a solid foundation with room to update and make it your own. Located in a mature neighborhood with established trees and close to schools, parks, and amenities.
