Discover a cozy and manageable raised bungalow located on a corner lot, right in the middle of schools, shopping, and other everyday conveniences. This practical property offers a great opportunity whether you're a first-time buyer, an investor, or simply looking for an affordable home with income potential. The main floor features two bedrooms, a full bathroom, and convenient in-suite laundry, providing everything you need in a straightforward, functional layout. The basement is set up as a bachelor-style unit with its own private entrance, perfect for a tenant or even extended family. It's a clean and workable space, and was previously rented at $600 per month. The upstairs portion is currently rented at $1,100 per month, giving you a head start on mortgage support. This home will turn you a profit. Whether you decide to live on the main floor with a mortgage helper in the basement or rent out both units, this affordable raised bungalow provides solid income potential in a location that tenants appreciate. If you've been looking to get into real estate investment or need a budget-friendly home with options, this property deserves a look!
