This charming home offers a new owner a quiet street in one of the best locations - a flat walk to downtown and just a stone's throw from the Bow River pathway system and the Lion's Park playground and tennis courts, as well as the golf course, rec center, and outdoor rink. Be sure to look up, the views from this area are outstanding. A large detached garage is located off the alley and still allows for a generous back yard area. There are some good retro bones here, ready for a new owner to update to their taste, or use it as-is while designing your dream home.
