Welcome to this beautifully refreshed two-story home in the family-friendly community of Copperwood. Featuring granite countertops, stylish accent walls, and a host of recent upgrades, this home is truly move-in ready. All appliances have been recently replaced with high-quality models, ensuring both style and efficiency. From the attached double garage, you'll step into a bright and functional mudroom that also serves as a convenient laundry area, leading directly into the modern kitchen. The open-concept living area features a cozy gas fireplace, perfect for entertaining or quiet evenings at home. The main floor boasts beautiful new vinyl plank flooring, while the upper level has been replaced with soft, plush carpet.

The lovely primary suite offers a luxurious ensuite with a walk-in closet, separate toilet and shower area, and massive corner soaker tub - the perfect place to relax and unwind. Two additional bedrooms and full bathroom provide the perfect living space for a young family. In addition, the fully developed basement includes a generously sized additional bedroom, another full bathroom, storage and utility rooms, PLUS a home theatre family room, complete with a stunning media wall, ceiling-mounted speakers, and dimmable lights. The backyard offers a deck, garden boxes, and alley access.

Located just steps from scenic ponds, walking paths, and only minutes from the local elementary school, this beautifully maintained home blends comfort, convenience, and community living.
