Escape to your own private sanctuary on 160 acres of pristine mixed parkland with open pasture and private clearings, ideally located just 25 km from Red Deer and a short drive to Pine Lake. This rare quarter section offers both seclusion and convenience, making it the perfect blend of country living and accessibility. At the heart of the property is a stunning 1,700+ sq ft log home featuring a wraparound deck and timeless craftsmanship. Thoughtfully updated, the home showcases a renovated kitchen and bathrooms with granite countertops, offering a beautiful balance of rustic charm and modern comfort. The land has plenty of space to build a larger shop or expand as desired. The land itself is rich in opportunity. With a 4 to 5 month carrying capacity of approximately 110 animal units, it’s well-suited for ranching or hobby farming. Beyond its agricultural potential, the property is a true recreational paradise. Elk, moose, and deer are frequent visitors, making it a hunter’s dream. An extensive network of walking and riding trails weave through the parkland, opening to private clearings and scenic spots perfect for relaxing, exploring, or enjoying the peace of nature with excellent recreational and hunting opportunities. This property is more than land and a home—it’s a lifestyle. Whether you’re looking for a private family retreat or a working farm operation.
