Charming 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom bungalow in a quiet, established neighborhood, just minutes from downtown Red Deer. Built in 1952, this home is full of character and offers a rare extra-large kitchen with brand-new flooring, plenty of counter space, storage, and room for family gatherings. The main floor features a bright living area and spacious dining space. The finished basement shares a side door entrance with the kitchen. Recent updates include fresh paint throughout the entire home, a professionally installed weeping tile and French drain system, and a brand-new hot water tank (2024), providing long-term protection and peace of mind. Outside, enjoy a wrap-around deck with fresh stain perfect for entertaining, a massive fully fenced yard ideal for pets, and mature trees that create a relaxing outdoor space. This home is just steps from parks, a quaint little ice cream and soda shoppe, and close to downtown for added convenience. With a central location near schools, shopping, and transit, this move-in ready home blends convenience, comfort, and opportunity.
