4-level split in Countryside South comes with a bright 3 bed, 2 bath space upstairs AND 2 bed, 1 bath walk-out suite downstairs, each with its own kitchen and laundry. Live in one, share the other, or just keep it all to yourself and enjoy the space. Upstairs you'll love the big kitchen with butcher block island and gas range, a sunny south-facing deck, and a backyard that feels extra private thanks to two bordering easements. New shingles, a wider driveway, and a finished garage, with its own laundry, separate breaker panel, 220V, and exhaust fan. Which makes this home as practical as it is versatile. Downstairs has its own entrance, kitchen, laundry, and storage, plus fire-rated upgrades like Rockwool insulation and double drywall between floors. And yes, the interior stairs are still there, just hidden for now. That way, if life ever throws you a curveball and you need a few more bedrooms upstairs, reconnecting the spaces is a snap. Extras? Everywhere you look. Gas BBQ hookup, storage under the deck, updated lighting fixtures…It's not just a house, it's a smart move with built-in flexibility. Come see what you can do with it.
