This Castleridge two-storey has been updated inside and out, with recent work adding even more value! The exterior has just been refreshed with new roof accessories, siding touch-ups, and other fixes that give the home a clean look from the street. Inside, the main floor is bright and functional with a living room that flows into the kitchen and dining area. It now includes a newly built bathroom on the mainfloor, making it more convenient for family and friends alike. Upstairs offers three bedrooms and a full bathroom, while the finished basement provides a large rec room, another bathroom, and a separate entrance. Out back, the yard is private and the double garage is now heated. With schools, parks, shopping, and transit close by, this home is move-in ready and designed for both comfort and practicality.
