Inside, you'll find a massive family room, a large kitchen with a welcoming dining area, and not just one but two sunrooms. The front sunroom includes a pellet stove (ready for installation) to keep it warm and cozy during the colder months. The property also includes a heated double garage equipped with two heaters, one overhead and one wall-mounted, as well as a separate heated office or storage space. The fully fenced yard offers convenient back alley access, adding both privacy and practicality.
