Welcome to this well-laid-out 1981 split level home, situated on a generous lot in the Town of Bow Island, close to the golf course and waterpark! Offering space, functionality and future potential, this home is ideal for the growing family. The two main floors, combined offer 1517 sq. ft of comfortable living space, featuring a bright living room as well as an inviting family room, complete with fireplace and walk-out to the backyard. The kitchen and dining areas flow nicely, creating a practical layout. The upper level measures 694 sq. ft. providing separation and privacy from the main living areas and where you'll find three of the home's four bedrooms, including a spacious primary bedroom with walk-in closet and private three-piece ensuite. The lowest level is undeveloped, offering excellent potential to customize additional living space, bedrooms or recreation areas to suit your needs. Additional highlights include an attached 21' x 21' garage, right off the practical mudroom-style entrance, perfect for busy households and the large laundry room, with plenty of room to hold your freezers and extra fridge. This home has lots to offer, come take a look to appreciate it yourself.
