Discover exceptional mountain-resort living—and income potential—in this spacious two-bedroom, two-bath condo at Silvercreek Lodge. Nestled just walking distance to the vibrant Downtown, this professionally managed suite offers the ideal blend of alpine charm, seamless turnkey operation and short-term-rental management through Waymarker Hospitality. Step into the open living and dining area, where the flooring stretches beneath a custom slate-faced gas fireplace and wall-mounted TV. Oversized windows and a sliding glass door flood the space with natural light. Enjoy morning coffee or evening cocktails on your private deck—complete with outdoor seating—while soaking in tranquil mountain views. Adjacent, the gourmet kitchen stands ready for any culinary endeavor. Rich wood cabinetry, sleek stainless-steel appliances and under-cabinet lighting highlight a mosaic-tile backsplash. A substantial granite island provides seating for four, making meal prep and casual entertaining effortless. An integrated breakfast bar invites guests to gather, while ample counter space and drawers ensure both style and function. Retreat to the bedrooms, where plush carpeting and hotel-grade linens on a king-sized bed guarantee restful nights. The en-suite bath dazzles with dual vessel sinks set on a granite countertop, a glass-enclosed shower and a deep slate-tiled soaking tub—complete with a pebble-inlay floor and built-in bath amenities. The second bedroom, ideal for family or visiting guests, boasts a comfortable queen bed, generous closet space and easy access to the full guest bath, appointed with modern fixtures and a tub-shower combination. Ownership includes heated underground parking stall ensuring convenience and security. As part of Silvercreek Lodge, you’ll enjoy on-site amenities designed to enhance every stay:

relax at the Bodhi Wellness spa, dine at the elegant Orchid restaurant, plunge into outdoor hot tubs or invigorate your routine in the fitness center and steam room. Professionally managed by Waymarker Hospitality, this suite comes fully prepared for short-term rental success. From marketing and reservations to housekeeping, maintenance and guest services, Waymarker handles every detail on your behalf—maximizing revenue potential and eliminating operational hassle. Whether you seek a personal mountain retreat, a reliable income stream, or both, this Silvercreek Lodge condo delivers effortless alpine living where every detail elevates your mountain-resort experience.
