Here is a chance to own 120 acres West of Red Deer off Burnt Lake Trail. This property has been used for grazing cattle and is on a dead end road making it a perfect private piece of nature. The property is fenced and includes a solar watering system and corrals to load livestock. With a mix of trees and pasture the possibilities are endless for the next buyer's vision. If you are looking for privacy on a low traffic road but still close to Red Deer and Sylvan Lake this may be the right property for you.
